Social Security

How would you protect Social Security for today’s seniors and strengthen it for future generations?

AARP’s Position:
Social Security should continue to guarantee that Americans who work and pay into the system receive benefits based on what they earn and contribute. Benefits should keep up with inflation and last for as long as an individual lives. We must strengthen Social Security for the future and protect benefits for people who count on them most, including surviving spouses and families, lower-wage workers, and disabled individuals who no longer can work. Social Security must be put on stable financial ground, but any adjustments should be implemented gradually so changes do not impact those in or near retirement.

Kenneth R. Buck (Rep):
If we don’t address these issues, we won’t be able to fix them, Buck said, speaking of the need to make cuts to programs like Social Security and Medicaid. They’re painful answers, but they are necessary. (Source: Castle Rock news Press, http://ow.ly/xwXUe)

Vic S. Meyers (Dem):
As your Congressman, I will work to save this vital program. I will insist that Congress honors that contract. I will not support the Chained CPI or any other program that might hurt those who rely on Social Security. (Source: Vic Meyers for Congress, http://ow.ly/xwY1e)

Medicare

How would you put Medicare on stronger financial ground and protect today’s seniors and future retirees from rising health costs?

AARP’s Position:
Medicare should be strengthened and improved so both current and future generations can count on having access to high-quality, affordable coverage. Medicare should continue to guarantee a specific set of benefits that are affordable and meet a person’s health care needs. Medicare should offer choices that ensure access to high-quality health care. Medicare should improve the quality, safety, and efficiency of care by emphasizing value and cracking down on fraud, waste, and abuse.

Kenneth R. Buck (Rep):
AARP did extensive research but was unable to find any public statement on this issue by July 11, 2014.

Vic S. Meyers (Dem):
Those who receive Social Security, Medicare, and Medicaid need every penny they get. Efforts to privatize these services and/or cut benefits with schemes like Chained-CPI will negatively impact the economic welfare of this district. I’m committed to protecting and improving these benefits for the overall economic health of my district. (Source: Daily Kos, http://ow.ly/xwY9j)
Financial Security

How would you help Americans save so they can secure their future and live independently as they age?

AARP’s Position:
More opportunities and incentives should be available for all Americans to plan and save so they can have a more secure future. Freedom from age discrimination is a fundamental right and critical to Americans’ ability to have a secure retirement. Every worker should be treated fairly, regardless of age. We need to support family caregivers who make it possible for more seniors to live in their homes and communities, where they want, rather than taxpayers and struggling families paying for costlier care.

Vic S. Meyers (Dem):
Wall Street’s doing fine, but it’s another story on Main Street – especially on the Main Streets of the small towns and cities of Colorado’s Fourth Congressional District (CD4). As your congressman I will: • Fight for subsidies that support our small businesses, farmers, and ranchers. • Keep regulatory reform so small businesses are not over-burdened. • Make sure middle-class tax rates do not go up. • Invest in 21st Century infrastructure. As your Congressman, I will not support subsidies for Wall Street bankers when Main Street small business owners are struggling to pay their electrical bills.
